INTELLIGENCE Authority of Cooper As Acting Governor

Attorney General E. P. Dole yesterday rendered an opinion addressed: "To His Excellency Henry E. Cooper, Act-ing Governor of the Territory of Ha-wall." The opening of the document reads thus:

"I have the honor, at your request 5.51.2.1 3.14 10.38 0.46 to submit the following opinion as to whether you are Acting Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.

"It often happens that questions arise in the administration of public affairs which are mattern of opinion, in which see mattern of opinion in which see mattern of opinion in which see mattern of opinion or must be considered and a decision reached by weighing one line of reasoning and authority against another. In regard to this matter I see absolutely no room for a difference of opinion or for the slightest doubt.

The Attorney General then quotes a New Jersey decision, relative to filling vacancies in the common council of the city of Newark. In this it was held that the word "disability" was "extensive enough to cover, and was designed to cover, any cause which prevented the commissioners from acting." Further, this authority holds that, where an official's resignation has been accepted, "There is in such a case a disability, which may be law-

Then a New Hampshire decision is cited, the syllabus of which says: "The chair of the governor is vacant within the meaning of the 49th article of the constitution, when his perma-nent or temporary disability and the necessities of the public service re-quire his official duties to be performquire his official duties to be performed by a substitute. In this case Governor Goodell wrote to Attorney General Barnard, saying. "Please take such steps as you think necessary to cause the president of the Senate to exercise the powers of the office of the governor during the vacancy caused by my illness. I am not able to perform the duties of the office, and the public service should not suffer from my inability." The quoted remarks of the Chief Justice, in renderfrom my inability." The quoted remarks of the Chief Justice, in rendering the opinion, show that under the constitution of New Hampshire the president of the Senate was "in fact, though not in name," lieutenant-governor of the State.
